Essential Questions

How does knowing the contexts, histories and traditions of art forms help us create works of art and design?

How does collaboration expand the creative process?

Why do artists follow or break from established traditions?

How do objects, places and design shape lives and communities?

How do artists and designers create works of art or design that effectively communicate?

How do artists grow and become accomplished in art forms?

How does collaboratively reflecting on a work help us experience it more completely?

Enduring Understandings

Creativity and innovative thinking are essential life skills that can be developed. Artists and designers shape artistic investigations, following or breaking with traditions in pursuit of creative art-making goals.

Artists and designers experiment with forms, structures, materials, concepts, media, and art-making approaches. Artists and designers balance experimentation and safety, freedom and responsibility, while developing and creating artworks. People create and interact with objects, places and design that define, shape, enhance, and empower their lives.

Artists and designers develop excellence through practice and constructive critique, reflecting on, revising and refining work over time.

Interdisciplinary Connections

Social Studies:

By studying art history, students will develop mastery of 6.2.8.HistoryCA.3.a by evaluating the importance and enduring legacy of the major achievements of Greece, Rome, India, and China over time.

Language Arts

Through art criticism, students will develop mastery of LA.6.SL.6.1 - Students will engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grade 6 topics, texts, and issues, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly.

By using domain specific vocabulary, students will develop mastery of LA.6.SL.6.6 - Students will adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

Technology Integration

- Students will use Google Classroom to collaborate on solving a problem, creating a product, or to participate in an online classroom discussion utilizing pre-learned etiquette about blended learning platforms.
 - 9.4.8.TL.6: Collaborate to develop and publish work that provides perspectives on a real-world problem.
- Students will access and assess YouTube to further investigate and practice lesson concepts.
 - 9.4.8.TL.3: Select appropriate tools to organize and present information digitally.
- Additional resources and extension activities will be posted on Google Classroom or other collaborative platforms in order to encourage students to reflect on their learning, the role of technology in facilitating collaboration, and to connect their learning to real world problems and events.
 - 9.4.8.TL.6: Collaborate to develop and publish work that provides perspectives on real-world problems.
- Students will use Google Slides to curate a portfolio demonstrating their learning, growth, and reflection throughout the course.
 - 9.4.8.DC.5: Manage digital identity and practice positive online behavior to avoid inappropriate forms of self-disclosure.

Essential Questions

How are artworks cared for and by whom?
 Why do people value objects, artifacts and artworks, and select them for presentation?
 What criteria are considered when selecting work for presentation, a portfolio, or a collection?
 What is an art museum?
 How does the presenting and sharing of objects, artifacts and artworks influence and shape ideas, beliefs and experiences?
 How do objects, artifacts and artworks collected, preserved, or presented, cultivate appreciation and understanding?

Enduring Understandings

Artists and other presenters consider various techniques, methods, venues, and criteria when analyzing, selecting and curating objects artifacts, and artworks for preservation and presentation

Artists, curators and others consider a variety of factors and methods including evolving technologies when preparing and refining artwork for display and or when deciding if and how to preserve and protect it.

Objects, artifacts and artworks collected, preserved, or presented either by artists, museums, or other venues communicate meaning and a record of social, cultural and political experiences resulting in the cultivating of appreciation and understanding.

SPARTAN MISSION:

Meeting the needs of all students with a proud tradition of academic excellence.

Individual aesthetic and empathetic awareness developed through engagement with art can lead to understanding and appreciation of self, others, the natural world, and constructed environments. Visual arts influences understanding of and responses to the world.

People gain insights into meanings of artworks by engaging in the process of art criticism.

Alignment to Standards

1.5.8.Re7a: Explain how a person's aesthetic choices are influenced by culture and environment, and how they impact the way in which visual messages are perceived and conveyed.

1.5.8.Re7b: Compare and contrast cultural and social contexts of visual arts and how they influence ideas and emotions.

1.5.8.Re8a: Interpret art by analyzing how the interaction of subject matter, characteristics of form and structure, use of media, art making approaches, and relevant contextual information contributes to understanding messages or ideas and mood conveyed.

Learning Activities & Key Concepts and Skills

Explain how a person's aesthetic choices are influenced by culture and environment.
Create innovative works of art exploring concepts of self, others, and the world around us.
Engage with works of art across various cultures and time periods using the Question Formulation Technique.

Use the Feldman Method of Art Criticism to practice visual literacy and fluency.
Interpret intent and meaning in work of art.
