Thank you, Spartan Teachers!

Teacher Appreciation Week is May 4-8. Please join me in sending a heartfelt, virtual thank you to all of our Spartan Teachers who work so hard every single day to make a difference in the lives of our students. A teacher's job can be a difficult one and even more so this year. Nonetheless, our teachers have found a way to create energetic, welcoming, positive classrooms remotely. Teachers, please know how much I appreciate all of your industry and innovation this year and always. Your journey toward your own #SpartanLegacy has never been more evident. Thank you!
